

Unique Feature

The Safeway Homes creative R&D department came up with a whole house water cut-off valve for emergency use. If you have a problem, you can go to the utility room washer box and cut off the water to the whole house instead of running outside to the street meter box.

